Club Business: We held our annual Christmas party tonight at the Village Inn in Caledonia. We enjoyed a wonderful buffet prepared by the chef at the Village Inn. We also enjoyed music during and after our dinner by a DJ. We were honored to have some of the people who are leaders for other organizations we support and friends of our club who have helped us join us for this evening of fellowship. Below are some pictures taken at the party.

Quote of the Week

Our hearts grow tender with childhood memories and love of kindred, and we are better throughout the year for having, in spirit, become a child again at Christmas-time.

Laura Ingalls Wilder

We won't be holding another meeting until January 3rd so our members can enjoy this holiday season with their families.

Joke of the week

At this time of year, when the roadblocks come up with great regularity, I would like to share a personal experience with my closest friends about driving and drinking.

As you well know, some of us have had brushes with the authorities on our way home from an occasional social session over the years. A couple of nights ago, I had a few beers with friends at my favorite place. Knowing full well I may have been slightly over the limit, I did something I've never done before; I took a cab home.

Sure enough, in route there was a police road block and they waived the cab right on past. I arrived home safely without incident, which was a real surprise as I have never driven a cab before and am not sure where I got it or what to do with it now that it's in my garage.
