For week of April 12, 2012

Members Absent: Mike & Amanda Hayes and Clair Milburn

Guests: Debbie, Joseph and Richard Shearer

Fines: No one had done anything deserving a fine this past week so President Wanda wasn't able to levy any this week.

Club Business: President Wanda thanked everyone who helped out at the Easter Egg Hunt this past Saturday (April 7th). We had one of our largest turn out of egg hunters and a glorious day for this service project. Thanks to the prizes donated by Mary Lou and Arch Krest we had 9 special winners this year.

Bill Redden passed out the list of Lima vendors the members need to contact for the Rotary Community golf tournament. We have to get in touch with each of these vendors within the next 3 weeks. He also advised the members that the Carson & Barnes Circus has been in touch with him asking if we would like to sponsor them for a day in July. The club is in agreement to do this but would like some more information as to the date and location we will hold it. Bill also told the Club that he had met with the HF-L music director and a couple of student to discuss a joint fundraiser with the Honeoye Falls-Mendon Club and us. It would be a community talent contest that will be somewhat like the You Got Talent TV show. We would try to hold this fund raiser in the early fall. The HF-M Club has agreed to participate with it and the Lima Club also agreed to join with them. The Club was also reminded of next week's program, Jeff Thomas talking about ARC Kids Start.

Queen of Hearts Drawing: Our jackpot has reached the total of $330.50 tonight and Joseph Shearer was asked to pull the winning ticket. He pulled one of Pat Brady tickets and Pat after closely looking over the cards pulled the 9 of spades from the ever decreasing deck. She won $2 for this card which she graciously donated back to the Club treasury.

Joke of the week

Italian Confession

An elderly Italian man who lived on the outskirts of Rimini , Italy , went to the local church for confession.

When the priest slid open the panel in the confessional, the man said: "Father.. During World War II, a beautiful woman from our neighborhood knocked urgently on my door and asked me to hide her from the Nazis. So I hid her in my attic."

The priest replied: "That was a wonderful thing you did, and you have no need to confess that."

"There is more to tell, Father.. She started to repay me with sexual favors. This happened several times a week, and sometimes twice on Sundays."

The priest said, "That was a long time ago and by doing what you did, you placed the two of you in great danger, but two people under those circumstances can easily succumb to the weakness of the flesh.

However, if you are truly sorry for your actions, you are indeed forgiven."

"Thank you, Father. That's a great load off my mind. I do have one more question."

"And what is that?" asked the priest.

"Should I tell her the war is over?"
