George Gotcsik will be speaking to his tenant, who is a mason, concerning helping us point up the mortar at the pavilion.

Bill Redden asked for a head count for our meeting next week at GVRC that is being held at Camp Sam Woods in Portageville. We will meet at the American Hotel at 5:15 and car pool to the camp.

President Pat discussed some of the fundraising ideas she has as well as some potential programs she wants to hold for our meetings. She also talked to us about some special friendship meetings she wants to hold. She also told us that she has talked to the Pasteria Pub about hosting the play we are planning on supporting. They are willing to have a dinner theater which we will help with the publicity and selling of tickets.

President Pat is looking for a Literacy chairperson for our club. The District will be hosting a seminar on Sept. 29th from 9-11 at the East Rochester Presbyterian Church.

Queen of Hearts Drawing: Our new pot is inching upward and is at a total of $17.50 tonight. Our guest Tom Simpson was asked to pull the lucky ticket. Quote of the Week

The most wasted of all days is one without laughter.

Joke of the week

Morty was in his usual place in the morning sitting at the table, reading the paper after breakfast. He came across an article about a beautiful actress that was about to marry a football player who was known primarily for his lack of IQ and common knowledge. He turned to his wife with a look of question on his face. "I'll never understand why the biggest jerks get the most attractive wives." His wife replied, "Why thank you, dear!"
