For week of Jan. 30, 2014

Members Absent: Pat Brady, Maria Conner, Amanda & Mike Hayes and Jim Murray

Guests: None tonight

Fines: Past President Clair Milburn was our acting President for this meeting. He had to fine himself $1 due to forgetting to have on his dinner badge (which he took home with him last week). Bill Redden made a $1 “happy buck” donation.

Club Business: George Gotcsik informed the Club that he has been in contact with a local resident who use to work for Rochester Lumber concerning Ian Gooding’s Eagle Project. He hopes to have some kind of response back within a couple of weeks.

Bill Redden asked those in attendance for a headcount for the Valentine’s dinner on Feb. 13th. He also mentioned that the Boy Scouts will be holding a Pancake Breakfast in early April and will be selling tickets in March to our members. Bill also mentioned that at next week’s meeting he will bring in the Spaghetti Dinner tickets that each member will be asked to sell. He does have some poster that can also be place in some of the businesses in town.

Program: There was no program tonight.

Queen of Hearts Drawing: Our jackpot has now reached up to a total of $119.00. We asked Fany Loughlin to pull the lucky ticket and she drew one that belonged to Bill Redden. He pulled the King of Diamonds from the deck so the pot is safe for another week.

Quote of the Week

True knowledge exists in knowing that you know nothing.
And in knowing that you know nothing, that makes you the smartest of all.

Jokes of the Week

As a new, young MD doing his residency, I was quite embarrassed when performing female pelvic exams. To cover my embarrassment, I had unconsciously formed a habit of whistling softly. The middle-aged lady upon whom I was performing this exam suddenly burst out laughing and further embarrassed me. I looked up from my work and sheepishly said, 'I'm sorry. Was I tickling you?' She replied, 'No, Doctor, but the song you were whistling was, 'I wish I were an Oscar Mayer Weiner''.
